Data Privacy Notice

In compliance with the Data Privacy Act (DPA) of 2012 and its Implementing Rules and Regulations, the Presidential Anti-Corruption Commission (“the Commission”) shall protect the data you provided. The Commission shall not collect, disclose or process personal data, including data that may be classified as personal information and/or sensitive personal information unless you voluntarily choose to provide us with it and give your consent thereto, or unless such disclosure is required by applicable laws and regulations. Personal and sensitive personal information is information pertaining to race, ethnic origin, religious belief, political affiliations, education, health or information provided by government agencies which are peculiar to individuals and such other data declared to be sensitive.

Personal Data Protection Consent Form:

By signing, we confirm that we freely and voluntarily give consent to the collection of our data, which may include personal information and/or sensitive information, set out in this form and/or otherwise provided by me and/or by the organization.

The Commission shall use the Data for the following purpose:

- a. Processing our application for accreditation;
- b. Administering and/or managing our accreditation with the Commission;

The Commission shall take appropriate and reasonable measure to ensure the requisite data security to protect the Data against unauthorized disclosure or unauthorized access. We agree that PACC shall retain the information throughout the term of our accreditation or up to one (1) year from the date of our application. We agree that the information will be deleted/destroyed thereafter.

We understand that we are given certain rights under the Data Privacy Act, including the right to object to processing our data, the right to access our data, the right to correct any inaccurate data, and the right to erasure or blocking of data.
